River

Travelling by river might be a good option and will deliver you directly to the Sail Royal Greenwich Reception area next to Royal Arsenal Woolwich Pier. Thames Clipper will be providing a commuter service from Embankment Pier, Westminster (on the north bank) and London Eye pier (on the south bank). If you have a large party, you could charter a Thames Clipper (seat capacities of 62, 138 or 220) for your sole use.

See <http://www.thamesclippers.com> for more information. Please, check the last departure time of the Thames Clipper so you don't miss the clipper after the cruise.

Docklands Light Railway (DLR)

Woolwich Arsenal Station is the nearest DLR stop. The Woolwich Arsenal extension serves all stations on the London City Airport, Canning Town and Stratford International route. Check Transport for London website for details.

Train

The nearest main line station is Woolwich Arsenal Station on the South-eastern railway network. Trains from Central London depart from Cannon Street, Charing Cross, Waterloo East and London Bridge. It is a five minute walk from the station to the Sail Greenwich Reception area.

See <http://www.southeasternrailway.co.uk> for more details or contact National Rail Enquiries on 0044 (0)84 5748 4950 or see <http://www.nationalrail.co.uk>.
